Deixem-nas Ser

Vejam que as suas mãos tão pequenas
dão mesmo conta é das bolas de gude!

Vejam quão serenas,
Mas plenas de atitude...

E com que apreço amassam a terra que vira bolos e doces

dos mais diversos sabores.

(E sonhos de múltiplas cores!)

É tempo de infância!

Tempo de subir,
e descer: crianças.

Deixem-nas ser!

Vejam: não conhecem a gravidade!

E com que prazer desafiam o vento
se lhes quer levar a pipa tão colorida

(e a vida... e a ingenuidade...)

que aprenderam a desenvolver

no curto tempo que têm

sem crescer...

Um Novo Tempo precisa nascer!

Deixem que sejam crianças!

Deixem-nas viver!

Não lhes imponham a arte do ofício!

Deixem que seus dedos curtos, e puros,

desenhem letras, árvores, flores;

levantem pontes, derrubem muros;

tracem amores;

desfaçam laços;

criem, apaguem, recriem os traços

do mundo que elas precisam olhar, ver e refazer...

Deixem-nas escolher!

No curto tempo que têm pra crescer...

Crianças é o que precisam ser!

Dêem-lhes tempo! Deixem-nas aprender!

Sem medo dos tempos que passam,

deixem que inventem, que façam

o Novo Tempo nascer.

The history of life on earth has been a history of interaction between living things and their surroundings. To a large extent, the physical form and the habits of the earth's vegetation and its animal life have been molded by the environment. Considering the whole span of earthly time, the opposite effect, in which life actually modifies its surroundings, has been relatively slight. Only in the present century has one species--man acquired significant power to alter the nature of his world.

replica sunglasses,

During the past quarter century this power has not only become increasingly great but it has changed in character. replica sunglasses The most alarming of all man's assaults upon the environment is the contamination of air, earth, rivers, and sea with dangerous and even lethal materials. This pollution is for the most part irrecoverable. In this now universal contamination of the environment, chemicals are the sinister partners of radiation in changing the very nature of the world, the very nature of its life.

aoc gold,

It took hundreds of millions of years to produce the life that now inhabits the earth. aoc gold Given time not in years but in millennia life adjusts, and a balance has been reached. But in the modern world there is no time. age of conan power leveling,

It is not my contention that chemical insecticides must never be used. age of conan power leveling I do contend that we have put poisonous and biologically potent chemicals indiscriminately into the hands of persons largely aion gold, or wholly ignorant of their potentials for harm. aion gold We have subjected enormous numbers of people to contact with these poisons, without their consent and often without their knowledge. I contend, furthermore, that we have allowed these chemicals to be used with little or no advance investigation of their effect on soil, water, wildlife, and man himself. Future generations are unlikely to forgive our lack of concern for the integrity of the natural world that supports all life. maple story mesos,

The most pressing problem created by the rapid increase in population is a shortage of food. maple story mesos More mouths have to be fed every year and yet a high proportion of the existing population are not getting enough of the right kind of food. Over the past two years the total amount of food has decreased, and of course the total amount of food per person has decreased even more sharply. dog clothes,

More and more of the babies born in developing countries have been surviving infancy, dog clothes and now nearly half the people living in those countries are under the age of 15. The adults have to work harder than ever to provide for the needs of the children, who cannot contribute to the economy until they are older. There is a shortage of schools and teachers, and there are not enough hospitals, doctors and nurses. Farming land is becoming scarce, so country people are moving to the towns and cities in the hope of finding a better standard of living. But the cities have not been able to provide housing, and the newcomers live in crowded slums. Finally, there are too few jobs, and unemployment leads to further poverty.

You want to be healthier and have more energy. You want to take good care of yourself. The problem is, life is hectic. However nice it j̄d be to have time for long strolls in the countryside, afternoon naps and relaxing baths j- youj̄ve got a few little matters like work, family, friends, chores and hobbies to fit into your day.

Perhaps youj̄ve made a few attempts at trying to live a healthier lifestyle, and theyj̄ve never worked out. You start a new diet every Monday. You try to quit caffeine, sugar and all at once. You take up exercising °C and your muscles are protesting after a day.

Sometimes, though, itj̄s the little changes which make a big difference. You donj̄t need to follow a huge time-consuming plan for the perfect body °C you just need the energy and enthusiasm to tackle life every day.

RuneScape Gold,

Here are five simple steps, RuneScape Gold all of which combined will take just twenty minutes each day. (If you have a few extra minutes to spare, Ij̄ve also suggested some bonus activities.)

Bonus: Do the same thing with one regular soda °C switch to a diet version, or flavored water. It might take your taste buds a week or two to adapt, but stick with it!

Bonus: Keep a bottle of water on your desk so that itj̄s within easy reach. Youj̄ll find yourself sipping more and staying hydrated during the day °C reducing the urge to snack. (Many of us mistake mild thirst for hunger.)

Let's face it, most of us should do more exercise. The trouble is, just the thought of the gym can be stressful. Perhaps you don't have time after work, or you don't want to follow a vigorous routine.

One of the best things you can do for your health is to walk. Walking won't put as much stress on your joints as other cardio activities, you can do it in your normal clothes, and you can easily go faster or slower depending on your fitness level. Just ten minutes is enough to see physical and mental benefits.

Bonus: Find ways to incorporate walking into your daily routine, so that it doesn't take up extra time. (Get off the bus a stop earlier, or walk to the local store instead of driving, for instance.)

BOSTON (MarketWatch) -- The counter-revolution is underway.

The G-20 calls for members to slash their budget deficits. The U.S. Senate ices further aid for the unemployed. The head of the Business Roundtable slams President Obama for undermining American capitalism. Wall Street succeeds in watering down reform.

Depending on your politics, you'll love this or hate it.

But there's just one problem.

rappelz rupees,

We're still living in a fantasyland. rappelz rupees Most people have no idea what's really going on in the economy.

They're living on spin, myths and downright lies. And if we don't know the facts, how can we make intelligent decisions?

Here are the three biggest economic myths -- the things everything thinks they know about the economy that just ain't so.

Myth 1: Unemployment is below 10%

But they're not. It's that simple.

world of warcraft gold,

If they were, world of warcraft gold the interest rate on government bonds would be skyrocketing. That's what happens with risky debt: Lenders demand higher and higher interest payments to compensate them for the dangers.

They aren't seeing inflation either. On the contrary, they're saying it will average just 2.3% a year over the next three decades. That's the gap between the interest rates on inflation-protected Treasury bonds and the rates on the regular bonds. By any modern standard the forecast is low. Instead of worrying about inflation, some are starting to worry about something even more dangerous: deflation, or falling prices.

maple story power leveling,

If that takes hold, maple story power leveling cutting spending and raising taxes would be a bad move.

It's certainly possible the lenders buying these bonds are being foolish. And it's worth noting that the Treasury market is also subject to political distortions, because foreign are among the heavy buyers of bonds. So it's worth treating its apparent verdicts with some caution. Nonetheless, the burden of proof, as usual, is on those who argue the market is wrong.

Health Top Tips Nutrition Love Lifestyle Happiness Weight Loss

world of warcraft gold,

Myth 3: world of warcraft gold The U.S. is sliding into "socialism"

Numbers published by the Federal Reserve a few weeks ago show that corporate profit margins have just hit record levels. Indeed. Andrew Smithers, the well-regarded financial consultant and author of "Wall Street Revalued," calculates from the Fed's latest Flow of Funds report that corporate profit margins rocketed to 36% in the first quarter. Since records began in 1947 they have never been this high. The highest they got under Ronald Reagan was 30%.

world of warcraft gold,

The picture is also similar when you exclude financials. world of warcraft gold

Meanwhile, federal spending, about 25% of the economy this year, is expected to fall to about 23% by 2013. In 1983, under Ronald Reagan, it hit 23.5%. In the early 1990s it was around 22%. Some socialism.

Atlantica gold,

These days, Atlantica gold three-fifths of the entire budget goes on just three things: Insurance for our old age (through Social Security and Medicare), defense, and debt interest.

Conservatives don't want to cut the $700 billion-plus we spend on defense. We can't cut debt interest payments. And while Social Security and Medicare certainly need reform, the main "problems" are simply rising life expectancy and health care demands. If we didn't provide for the insurance through our taxes we'd have to do it individually.

What about the rest of the budget? It's jumped from around 7% of GDP a few years ago to about 10% now. Out of control? It's been in the 6% to 9% range for decades. It's forecast to fall to about 8% again in a few years.

So much for a revolution. But here comes the counter-revolution just the same.

The three biggest lies about the economy

Nearly prom dresses, two thousand years prom dresses, have passed since a census decreed by Caesar Augustus become part of the greatest story ever told. Many things have changed in the intervening years. The hotel industry worries more about overbuilding than overcrowding, and if they had to meet an unexpected influx, few inns would have a manager to accommodate the weary guests prom dresses.

Eve isk,

Now it is the census taker that does the traveling in the fond hope that a highly mobile population will stay long enough to get a good sampling. Methods of gathering, recording, and evaluating information have presumably been improved a great deal Eve isk.

ffxi gil

And where then it was the modest purpose of Rome to obtain a simple head count as an adequate basis for levying taxes, now batteries of complicated statistical series furnished by governmental agencies and private organizations are eagerly scanned and interpreted by sages and seers to get a clue to future events. The Bible does not tell us how the Roman census takers made out, and as regards our more immediate concern, the reliability of present day economic forecasting, there are considerable differences of ffxi gil opinion.

wow power leveling,

They were aired at the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the American Statistical Association. There was the thought that business forecasting might well be on its way from an art to a science, and some speakers talked about newfangled computers and high-falutin mathematical system in terms of excitement and endearment which we, at least in our younger years when these things mattered, would have associated more readily with the description of a fair maiden wow power leveling.

wedding gowns,

But others pointed to the deplorable record of highly esteemed forecasts and forecasters with a batting average below that of the Mets, and the President-elect of the Association cautioned that "high powered statistical methods are usually in order where the facts are crude and inadequate, the exact contrary of what crude and inadequate statisticians assume.wedding gowns"

wow power leveling,

We left his birthday party somewhere between hope and despair and with the conviction, not really newly acquired, that proper statistical methods applied to ascertainable facts have their merits in economic forecasting as long as neither forecaster nor public is deluded into mistaking the delineation of probabilities and trends for a prediction of certainties of mathematical exactitude wow power leveling.

Organization. Look at your structure as to vertical, horizontal or matrix. It should reflect the usual organization reporting arrangement. And, more importantly, it should support the means to providing a dynamic, ongoing logistics service with successful results.

prom dresses

Skill sets. prom dresses You want to establish yourself as a supply chain service solution provider, someone who will develop a tailored logistics program to fit the specific needs of each customer. Solution providers see the container-and more. They see pallets of product-and more. They know it is about the process, not the container or pallet.

wedding dresses

3PLs initially focus on investing in assets,wedding dresses warehouses and technology, without knowing how these fit into 3PL solutions. This approach constructs answers without knowing the questions. Rather, the successful 3PL sells, design and manages customized logistics in an international or domestic venue. The issue then becomes whether existing personnel are capable of selling logistics and supply chain solutions.

A holistic sales approach is needed for 3PLs than for commodity service providers.wedding gowns Commodity sales personnel often deal with the customer perspective of the need to manage costs. Yet the customer has additional accountabilities. 3PL sales personnel need to address the customer's supply chain accountability scope. The accountability scope is 90% of the customer attention span as compared to the 10-25% that freight or warehousing cost is. 3PLs must focus on the 90%, not the 10-25%, to gain business.

Firms need training to facilitate these skills. Staffing is often built with existing personnel who have sales and operations experience with the commodity service parent company. 3PLs, not surprisingly, find that even with training, and with continuous performance monitoring afterward, less than 10% of the sales force can make the mindset change to sell logistics. As a result, they may employ non-shipping people to do logistics selling. They draw on outside firms with people who have real world supply chain knowledge and experience to sell and assist with designing and managing integrated logistics programs.

Other.wedding dresses There are other points to recognize as to process design capability, people, technology, budget, sales targets and advertising. The overseas network, where applicable for international 3PLs, is a key factor.

Conclusion. The ongoing challenge for 3PLs is to successfully design, sell and manage a logistics solution with easily monitored metrics and accountability. Consider the high rate of outsourcing failures. Causes ranging from a rush to procure business and not understanding the process and requirements to some 3PLs converting back into a commodity service. This conversion defeats the very purpose of the 3PL. Outsource service providers seek competitive advantage; they know that preserving competitive advantage is an ongoing challenge.

Wow power leveling

The official World of Warcraft: Cataclysm site has been updated with a look at Tol Barad and how it will change after the upheaval coming with the new expansion Wow power leveling.

wow power leveling

After Cataclysm arrives, Tol Barad will be an open world PvP zone with hubs from which both Horde and Alliance can complete daily quests. Up to eighty players will be able to engage in PvP combat across the entire island.

Tol Barad will feature capture-point gameplay. There are three keeps and three towers for the defending side to hold.

When destroyed by the attackers, each tower will add five minutes to the standard fifteen-minute battle timer. In order to win, though, all three keeps must be captured and controlled by the attackers wow power leveling.

world of warcraft power leveling

If these keeps cannot be taken by the attacking forces, the defending faction will claim victory in Tol Barad. Similar to Eye of the Storm, Tol Barad determines whether a keep has been captured by the number of players from each side in the immediate area world of warcraft power leveling.

world of warcraft power leveling

There is, however, a new twist: each time a member of your faction is killed in the immediate vicinity of a keep, a slider bar will move slightly in favor of the opposing faction. So not only does the size of each force in the area determine who controls each keep, but losing allies during the contesting process determines control as well world of warcraft power leveling.

The official World of Warcraft: Cataclysm site has been updated with a look at Tol Barad and how it will change after the upheaval coming with the new expansion Wow power leveling.

wow power leveling

World of Warcraft devs have been cranking out new blog posts at a furious pace. The latest one deals with Pilgrim's Bounty. From now through November 27th, World of Warcraft players from both Horde and Alliance will have the chance to participate in the annual Pilgrim's Bounty festival. It may be the last time to 'party hearty' in the Azeroth you have known and loved so well before 'Cataclysm-ic' events tear the world apart wow power leveling.

world of warcraft power leveling

Pilgrim's Bounty also plays host to a series of daily cooking quests designed to help chefs master their craft with seasonal recipes plucked from a Bountiful Cookbook. These quests require players to travel between the major cities of Azeroth and to fill the stomachs of armies with seasonal food. The reward for these quests is a Turkey Caller, a prize that ensures that the accomplished pilgrim will never go hungry again world of warcraft power leveling.

If you're interested in learning the Pilgrim's Bounty's recipes, speak with an NPC outside any major city. Stuffing and potatoes are easy enough to put in front of a fire, but if you want to cook a turkey, you'll need to catch one first. Do you think only adding five levels to the game is a great move by Blizzard?I do. It does not seem as daunting a task for players to get to 85. I am sure someone will be there by Thursday and we'll see a report about it. This expansion was much more about giving players a new world to play in. Correcting some of the mistakes they made with zones that were still left over from the 2004 design. It allowed Blizzard to overhaul the original game. It seems like these elements were added to give new players a chance to experience a much more up to date MMO with WoW. The expansion will bring a lot of players back and maybe even get some new players as well. If so they will experience a much smoother run through while leveling.

I guess the best parts of Cataclysm will come in the winter months. While we are all snowed in and reach 85 then we can start raiding and running instances again. I do think Lich King was a fantastic expansion and brought a lot to the world that was missed in Burning Crusade. I thoroughly enjoyed Lich King and loved the Norse style of the zones. Let's hope the new Cataclysm zones give players the same excitement. I'll be leveling my Shaman and Death Knight likely at the same time. I hope to get them both to 85 together, this way I'll have a tank and healer for raids. The idea of creating a Goblin is fun too, they look much better than I thought they would.
